"Lost & Found"

I, I was lost
I could not breathe

Taking a trip, stepping outside facing the crowd, empty souls running wild with reckless abandonment

I, I was lost
I could not breathe
Till you found me floating away
Till you found me floating away

When you turned around, I knew it then
We were alone, but not for too long

Dance with me now; please, please don't think Look in my eyes, let your soul open up
with reckless abandonment

You saved my life
You gave me strength
When you found me, floating away
When you found me, floating away
I was lost till you found I was lost

I was so lost, was so lost, was so lost…
 - I couldn't breathe, I was so very, very lost

 You gave me strength, gave me strength, gave me strength…
 - You saved my life, gave me strength, gave me strength

I was so lost
I could not breathe
Till you found me floating away
Till you found me
