

“Never Believed In”

by Daniel Paul Work (ASCAP/SmileyNote Studios, inc., c2020)

You know what you thought, you thought what you knew
Some days go great and some make you blue You’ve heard it before take the good with the bad but at least know what’s real and know what you had

(chorus)

I have no sight, I can not look
How can you see what you’ve never believed in

I did not hear, I can not yell
How can you scream what you’ve never heard before

I can’t hold you, can not feel you
How can you touch what was never there at all

I don’t know you, was it not real
How can you see what you’ve never believed in

I found there’s truth in lies your lies are really true

Instrumental Verse

(chorus)

I see the white light but it’s just shades of grey Yesterday made you all that you are The future’s created by the past that made you
But what lies ahead when the past wasn’t real

(chorus)

I can’t hold you, can not feel you
How can you touch what was never there at all

I don’t know you, was it not real
How can you see what you’ve never believed in
